C-Sews

C-Sews (Charity Sewing) is a small group within the Red Rock Quilters Guild dedicated to making quilts for donation to nonprofit organizations throughout the Verde Valley.

How C-Sews Works
C-Sews meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 9:30 a.m. We generally begin with a brief Zoom check-in, after which members sew independently in their own homes.

Our check-in sessions include:

- Updates on current quilting projects
- Reviewing and updating our project tracking log
- Sharing what each member is currently working on
- Discussing upcoming needs and projects

Occasionally, a small group of members will get together to sew on a project, usually at a member's home.

Want to Make a Charity Quilt?

Anyone is welcome to make and donate a charity quilt!
If you would like your quilt to be donated to a specific partner organization, please let us know when you turn in your donation. We will do our best to honor your request.

Guidelines for Service Quilt Construction
Fabric:
100% cotton
Design:
Any print or panel, patchwork, appliqué, or creative pattern. Please do not use flag prints or religious prints of any type.
Batting:
Light- or medium-weight batting. We recommend 100% cotton or 80% cotton/20% polyester.
Label:
Please use a Red Rock Quilters Guild quilt label. Labels are available from Lori Feine.
Preferred Sizes:
We prefer quilts in the following approximate sizes:

- 68" × 80"
- 52" × 60"

If you have a quilt you'd like to donate that is larger or smaller than these preferred sizes, please don't let that stop you from donating it. We will accept quilts outside these size guidelines.
